

CONTEST IS LIVELY IN FIRST TENNESSEE

Candidates Anxious to Succeed Late Representative Brownlow.

BRISTOL, Tenn., Sept. 15.—One of the hottest Congressional contests that Tennessee has experienced in some time is now being waged in the First district over the mantle of the late Representative Walter Preson Brownlow.

The fight for the Republican nomination, which is tantamount to election, has narrowed down to a contest between the two factions of the Republican party—the Brownlow and the Evans.

For years before the death of the late Representative the faction of his party led by H. Clay Evans, former consul general in London, had maintained an organization in his district, and had tried in vain several times to defeat him.

Sells Opposes Swab. Late Senator Sam R. Sells, a young Republican and leader of the minority in the upper house of the last general assembly of the State, which passed the prohibition bill and the "honest" election laws over Governor Patterson's veto, is the candidate of the Evans or anti-Brownlow faction, while Senator Daniel Cooper Swab, intimate friend of the late Representative and millionaire mine-owner of Claiborne county, is the candidate of the faction of Mr. Brownlow.

Looking for Harmony. The primary will bring harmony to one party in the district, where there has been a militant organized opposition to Mr. Brownlow for years. This opposition in his own party nominated former Representative Alf Taylor, a Democrat, and brother of United States Senator "Bob" Taylor, against Brownlow some six years ago. He did not make much of a race, but since that time the fight on Brownlow had been kept up until his death.

Months before his death Senator Sells entered the fight against him and was making an aggressive campaign until Brownlow's final illness began, and then he ceased until weeks after his death, only to take up the fight with renewed vigor.

In his sixteen years in Congress Brownlow got appropriations aggregating $300,000 for the Federal Soldiers' home at Jackson City. Neither of the candidates to wear his mantle is making any promises to equal his record for getting appropriations. In fact, many believe that it will be a long time before the First district gets much more money from the Federal Treasury for the erection of buildings, improvements, etc., owing to the fact that it has had more in sixteen years than all other Congressional districts in the State have had since its organization.

WASHINGTON WOMAN UP IN AN AEROPLANE

Miss Katherine Reed, Teacher-Athlete, Caps Climax of Daring Record.

Miss Katherine Reed, head of the English department at the Western High School, well known as an intrepid out-of-door sportswoman, walking, and mountain climbing enthusiast, has added another headline to her list of accomplishments.

Miss Reed has now become an aviator or "experienced ballast," as she naively put it in a telegram to her friends here in Washington. For yesterday she established a new record for Washington women, by making an ascent with Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, in his Farman biplane, at the Atlantic course, near Boston.

Farman twice circled the course with his fast passenger. At no time did she give any sign of nervousness. Her Washington friends express no surprise at her daring.

"We are past surprise," said Mrs. Della Ridgley, with whom Miss Reed has made her home at the Hammond Court apartments for the last four or five years. "All we can do now is to sit and gasp."

Last year while on her vacation in the West, Miss Reed, with a party of friends, ascended Mt. Rainier. The fact is one that has been accomplished by but few women, and the feat was looked upon as something of a heroine by her set in this city. The exertion and hardships occasioned by the feat resulted rather seriously for the plucky little woman, and she was in delicate health virtually all last winter from the effects.

Miss Reed has been visiting friends in Boston for the last month, and the opportunity to make the ascent in the biplane came just as she was on the eve of her departure for Washington. It is expected that she will reach Washington either tomorrow or Saturday, as the local school session begins next Monday.

Miss Reed is a native of Chicago, but has been engaged in teaching in the Washington High Schools for the last eight or nine years.

CLEVELAND GROWTH GREATEST RECORDED

Population, Now 560,663, May Outstrip Baltimore, Is Prediction.

The Census Bureau this afternoon announced that the 1910 population of Cleveland is 560,663, which is an increase of 178,895, or 46.9 per cent.

It was announced that the present population of Joliet, Ill., is 24,670, with an increase of 5,317, or 18.1 per cent. Cleveland's big increase sends her far ahead of her rivals, Pittsburgh, 523,995; Detroit, 465,766; and Buffalo, 423,715.

Baltimore, which stood in sixth place in 1900, has not been announced as yet for 1910. In 1900 Baltimore had 508,957, while Cleveland at that time had only 381,768. Unless Baltimore shows a big increase, Cleveland may pass the Monumental City. Census officials, however, said this afternoon, that it was not likely.

The percentage of increase shown by Cleveland is greater than that of any city above it in the list so far announced. Advance official estimates placed the population of Cleveland at 530,383. That figure was surpassed by 30,280.

NEGRO UNDER BOND FOUND DEAD AT HOME

Death today relieved the District of the necessity of giving Edward Gant, a negro, a trial on the charges against him involving the slaying of Victoria Gaffner on July 28 last.

Gant was found dead this morning in his home, 307 D street southeast. He died without medical attention, and because of this fact the coroner will make a complete investigation.

Gant, the police say, was at liberty on $1,000 bond, under which he was placed following an altercation which occurred near Seventh and A streets southeast July 25 last. The Gaffner woman, also a negro, was badly slashed about the throat.

SKULL FRACTURED BY FALLING TIMBER

William J. Sullivan Is Seriously Injured Inspecting Work on School.

Struck by a falling timber while he was inspecting the Lovejoy School, William J. Sullivan, a contractor, lies in a critical condition at Casualty Hospital.

Sullivan, who is forty-eight years old and who lives with his family at 1903 C street, had occasion to visit the new addition to the school at Twelfth and D streets northeast, this morning. He had completed an inspection of the work in which he was interested, and was standing outside the building when a heavy timber fell from one of the third-story windows, striking him a glancing blow. He was felled to the ground unconscious.

Casualty Hospital was notified and the man was removed to that institution, where an operation was performed. He is still unconscious.

SCENE SELECTED FOR Y. M. C. A. FEAST

Dr. Taber Johnson's farm at Cherrydale, Va., has been chosen as the scene for the annual corn roast and watermelon feed of the Young Men's Christian Association, to be held tomorrow evening. Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of 100 guests, for the party constituting the members of the association and their invited male guests.

Albert M. Chesley is chairman of the entertainment committee, and from the few hints gathered in various quarters it is expected that the program will surpass those of former years. Schedule cards leave the Aqueduct bridge from 7 to 7:30; the return trip will be made at 10 o'clock.

INFLAMMATION MADE HER ALMOST CRAZY

With Pain, Itching Settled from Knee to Toes. Physicians Cost a Fortune. No Relief. Went to Hospital 3 Years. Unable to Help.

Finally Used Cuticura and Was Completely Cured.

"I began to have an itching over my whole body about seven years ago and this settled in my limbs, from the knee to the toes. I went to see a great many physicians, a matter which cost me a fortune, and after I noticed that I did not get any relief that way, I went for three years to the hospital. But they were unable to help me there. I used all the medicines that I could see but became worse and worse. I had an inflammation which made me almost crazy with pain. When I showed my foot to my friends they would get really frightened. I did not know what to do. I was so sick and had become so nervous that I positively lost all hope."

"I had seen the advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies a great many times but could not make up my mind to buy them, for I had already used so many medicines. Finally I decided to use the Cuticura Remedies and I tell you that I was never so pleased as when I noticed that, after having used two boxes of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills, the entire inflammation had gone. I was completely cured. I feel only too glad if people with a similar disease would come to me and find out the truth. I would only recommend them to use Cuticura. Mrs. Bertha Sachs, 1621 Second Ave., New York, N. Y., Aug. 20, 1909."

"Mrs. Bertha Sachs is my sister-in-law and I know how she suffered and was cured by the Cuticura Remedies after many other treatments failed. Morris Sachs, 321 E. 89th St., New York, N. Y., Secretary of Deutsch-Ostrower Unt-Verrein, Kempner Hebrew Benevolent Society, etc."
